

Your Experience Matters

Volunteers needed for research project on 'Couple Relationships'

I'm interested in how couples support each other when they have a child who is experiencing mental health difficulties.

If you're interested in being involved, please contact me
Rosie Hunt: rosemary.hunt@postgrad.manchester.ac.uk

Is this for me? Do you have a young adult child (aged 16-25) who is experiencing mental health difficulties and is currently at school, college or university? Are you in a couple? Do you receive Universal Credit or Carers Allowance?

What is involved? A 90-minute interview, as a couple together. Open questions about your experience and you will not be asked to disclose anything you are not comfortable with. Confidentiality: Your involvement and contribution will remain anonymous.

When is the research? The aim is complete the interviews in February and March 2022.
