

Carers Choir

Would you like a break from your caring role and do you love to sing and meet new people?
Come and join our Carers Choir on Friday lunchtimes

You don't have to have any special talent or even be a current carer
You don't have to attend every week - all you need is a love of singing

Held from 12-1pm at the Central United Reformed Church on Norfolk Street (lift available)
There sessions for this month will be on 6,13,20 & 27 May
We meet every Friday at midday for an hour

No need to book and there is a small charge of £3 per person payable by cash on the day
For more information email jan@sheffieldcarers.org.uk or liz.kittiwake@gmail.com
Everyone is welcome to come and join the choir
